Attachment Focused Psychotherapy and Parenting

for children and youth with attachment/trauma problems

Don't miss it!

This unique event is open to all those who live and work with children and youth who have trauma, loss and attachment issues.

Dan presents in a deeply engaging manner. This workshop will present an overview of the crucial role of a secure attachment on a child's neurological, emotional, cognitive, and behavioural development.

Dan Hughes, Ph.D., consults with various mental health, social service and residential treatment programs throughout the United States and other countries. A gifted presenter, Dan offers trainings for parents and therapists while maintaining a small practice in Annville, Pennsylvania. He is the author of Building the Bonds of Attachment (1998/2006) (Jason Aronson) and Attachment Focused Family Therapy (2007) (W.W. Norton). Dan is a member of the Association for Treatment and Training in the Attachment of Children (ATTACH).
